BUSINESS NOTICES

Photographia Allemã.—This is the excellent establishment of Mr. M. Kiehn, successor to Messrs. Alberto Henschel & Co., at No. 41 Rua das Orlas. The quality of work done by this house is superior. The artistic photographer invests his productions with a living reality. His art reproduces not only the mere outlines, but transfers to them, too, the spirit of the subject. The result is a photograph which evokes admiration and is perfectly faithful. Such Mr. Kiehn's work.
His portraits in oil and crayon are above criticism.
Photographs are made by all systems, and orders are taken for work outside of the gallery. You find here a complete collection of pictures of eminent characters in politics, literature, art, etc.

As Grão-Turco.—This prominent establishment of Messrs. Estella & Co., at No. 64 Rua do Ouro, is replete with a splendid assortment of goods particularly suitable for the holiday trade.
Their stock of objects of art, children's toys, toilet articles and articles for salons, perfumery, etc., is complete and cannot be equalled for infinite variety, quality and elegance. An examination of this vast collection of novelties and useful and ornamental articles can not fail to discover something that would make a fitting present. A special exposition of fans of all kinds from the ordinary to the most highly ornamented and richly designed, is made every Saturday and should be seen. The prices are plainly marked and are half those of any other house.

Furniture and Carpets.—Mr. Henry Kingston, at No. 8 Rua das Orlas, has just received a large invoice of beautiful furniture for parlors, sleeping-rooms and dining-rooms. He has also added largely by fresh receipts to his stock of special upholstered and fine wicker furniture of high designs and new styles. All the furniture he offers to the public is particularly adapted to this climate and made of the best wood. In his spacious store-room he displays sofas, reclining chairs provided with every device of comfort, tapestry, curtains, window ornaments, an extensive variety of carpets, mats, hassocks, oil-cloths, quilts, mat tresses, in fine everything to be found in a complete and first-class stock of furniture and carpets.
The upholstering department is a special feature of his establishment, and the work that comes from it is done in the most substantial manner. He also makes a specialty of receiving orders to be filled direct from Europe.

Companhia Grande Hotel de Petropolis.—
This company owns the two principal hotels in Petropolis, the Itaipava and the Orléans, provided with every desirable comfort for guests and with the service of first-class establishments. The Hotel Itaipava is situated at Nos. 21 and 23 on the Avenida 15 de Novembro, a broad and attractive avenue. The Hotel Orléans is at the base of a little mount, fronting the Praça D. Afonso and with the charming river Quiladilha flowing at its side.
Both hotels have pleasure-pharons for excursions in the romantic scenery of the suburbs and carriages to convey passengers to and from the railroad station. This is the season of the year to bear in mind that Petropolis is considered by hygienists to

The ratifications of the arbitration treaty, already laid before you for your approval, should have been exchanged in Washington on the 1st of May, or before, had it been possible. But serious causes not under the control of the governments signing the treaty, the ratifications were then exchanged, the government of the United States of America proposed that an agreement should be made for postponing to two years the date of that agreement the exchange of ratifications.

tions. In conformity with the wishes of that government our minister in Washington was authorized to sign the new agreement, which depends, like the other, on your approval.

In the short period which I have held office it would be impossible to execute any vast scheme of administration, especially since the dictatorial power being eliminated, the action of the legislative branch of the government is indispensable. Public expenditure, however, has been made to conform to law; the collection of the public revenue has been carefully supervised; the relations between the State and the municipalities established on a footing of impartial liberality.

The regular administration of the public treasury constitutes one of my principal cares, just as, from eloquent proof, you have already given of yourself in this matter, it will constitute, I am certain, one of yours.

On September 19th last, in compliance with an appeal from one of the branches of the legislature, my predecessor and myself a message to Congress in which it was proposed to demonstrate the generative causes of the crisis which has disturbed the commercial and industrial movement of the country, and, at the same time, in examining its economic and financial conditions, to indicate the measures, which, in his opinion, might remove the serious embarrassments which are afflicting our productive classes. This most important and especially the subject of your enlightened attention and solicitude when this message was published. Those difficulties, which then occupied such so much seriousness your patriotic spirit, have not disappeared.

The large production of coffee from which, with reason, there was expected an advance in exchange, was marketed, it is certain, in fair proportion, but without necessarily improving exchange rates. On the contrary the prices, which in the exportation of the coffee, were gradually declining in a manner so persistent and capricious that all administrative provisions, tacked in their various applications, have continued with the same declining tendency.

At the termination of the dictatorship, the market very naturally breathed with greater freedom, and exchange at once showed confidence in the newly established order by an advance in rates.

In analyzing the measures to be counselled by your enlightened attention to remove our financial difficulties, which can and should disappear in the near future, I will use every endeavor to re-establish confidence in our credit within and without the country, for the purpose of re-assuring the producing classes and of affording value to our circulating medium, to which must contribute a sound budget law, executed with loyalty and integrity. This, I expect from your patriotism, and I will use every endeavor to correspond to your high purposes.

It is my intention to furnish you with minute information regarding the condition of the Treasury, but time was wanting to organize this labor. All particulars, however, which you may consider necessary will be furnished you, not only for the definite organization of the budget law, but also that you may form a true judgment as to the economic and financial position of the country.

From the elements possessed by the Treasury, the fiscal year 1890 will be liquidated with a deficit of 29,828,231 $585, less by 8,220,715 $369 than that estimated in the budget of the department of finance. This difference arises from having included in the additional semester of the fiscal year items, such as the revenue of the Central railway, corresponding to the month of December last, the premium on sales of gold offered at the custom houses in the various states in payment of import duties, and the collection of the transfer of property tax by the sub-Treasury at S. Paulo, which, for want of the respective statements could not then be taken into account.

Nevertheless so favorable has been the movement of the collections in the current fiscal year, due in part to the collection of gold of the month of December last, the premium on sales of gold offered at the custom houses in the various states in payment of import duties, and the collection of the transfer of property tax by the sub-Treasury at S. Paulo, which, for want of the respective statements could not then be taken into account.

To obtain as clearly as possible the result of the collections and expenditure of the Republic up to the end of last September the Treasury requested information from its agents, and only those in the States of Amazonas, Rio Grande do Sul and Mato Grosso have not reported. This information is as follows:

The ordinary revenue during the referred period was 428,705,656 $144 and the extraordinary was 25,031,910 $855, which together amount to 453,737,566 $299. Expenditure in the same period being 447,075,328 $237, there is balance realized of 6,662,238 $601. This balance cannot continue in the end of the fiscal year, according to the estimates of the Treasury, and it doubtless arises from many expenses not having been as yet classified from lack of the necessary documents. As my recent information affords a better basis than that of June 15th last, for estimating the revenue, it becomes necessary to do this anew for the fiscal year.

If the revenue in the months was 164,739,928 $298, in proportion it should be 54,913,322 $439 in the three months wanting to complete the fiscal year. And if to the total thus found there be added the revenue of the additional semester, the result would be the similar period of 1890, after deducting the special revenue of this year, which will not appear in 1891 and further the next sum of deposits, there will be a revenue of 234,572,678 $526.

The authorized expenditure in the referred fiscal year amounts to 236,466,017 $447. If the budget appropriations be all disbursed, a deficit of 1,893,948 $211 will appear. It is necessary to submit to you, however, that these figures, these disbursements are not to be expected, it is certain that from information collected in the Treasury, some of the appropriations of the present budget are exhausted, there remaining engagements in the satisfied for important services, such as amongst others, those of immigration, the responsibility for which cannot be as yet accurately fixed.

It is to be added that the execution of Decree No. 438 of July 11th last, regulating the manner of delivery of land services to the constituted states, and those to be constituted, as well as the liquidation of engagements of the federal officers, may cause a shortage in the revenue as collected.

Notwithstanding this excess of expenditure tends to modify to a greater or less extent the calculations I present to you, you will be enabled to understand the present condition of the Treasury, it being further necessary that you furnish the government with the necessary resources, in order that in the fiscal year about to commence, it may meet the numerous demands of the public service and the existing charges.

From what I submit, you will see that the position of the Treasury may shortly, by judicious measures, become favorable, the period of budget deficits closed, which will most efficaciously contribute to the advance in exchange and the improvement of our credit in the foreign money markets.

The passing of a sound budget law, in which is secured the equilibrium of expenditure and revenue, the reorganization of our banking regime that the circulating medium may be improved in value, and the preparation of the organic laws supplementary to the constitution, are matters which I expect you will consider with your enlightened criterion, so that republican institutions may more and more be planted and consolidated in our country. For this end you may count upon my most dedicated assistance and all warlike efforts are within my reach will be furnished to you.

Federal Capital, December 18th, 1891.

FLORIANO PEREIRA.

BRAZILIAN FINANCE.—EXCHANGE AT 12 P.M.C.

To the Editor of THE RIO NEWS.

Sir,—The deplorable condition to which the finances of this country have been reduced by the evil genius of Drs. Ruy Barbosa, Mayrink and Lucena, may well fill all lovers of Brazil with grief and shame and almost with despair. On the one hand, the general admitted that, with even a moderate amount of intelligence and honesty on the part of its rulers during the last two years, Brazil would at this moment have been prosperous beyond all previous experience. But instead of this, what do we see? Exchange at 12½! The cause of this is not far to seek, though, strange to say, there are still some Brazilians who seem reluctant to admit it. But what is to be done if a remedy could be found for the present state of things, such a remedy would clearly be worth millions to the country. But can such a remedy be found? At the risk of being thought presumptuous I venture to say I do not doubt it can be found; my only doubt and fear is whether it will be sought and applied.

In the case of serious and complicated bodily illness, the first step is to call in professional assistance, the best that may be had. In special cases such assistance is sometimes sought abroad. Let the same rule be followed with the financial disease which is now threatening the very life of this fine country. Call in the aid of talented and experienced experts. Some such there are even in Brazil. Let them be consulted and let effect be given to their advice. Or, better still, call in the assistance of some independent foreign specialist of acknowledged authority. Messrs. Rothschilds would have no difficulty in naming several such men in whom, not only Brazil, but foreign nations, also might well place confidence. As an Englishman, I might myself prefer an English adviser; but English interests are so deeply concerned in this case, that it might be as well to seek advice from some other country.

Now there is in France a public man of the very highest authority on financial questions—I refer to M. Leon Say. Let the government of Brazil call in the assistance of M. Say. Let the real state of affairs be fully set before him, and let it be seen that there is a real intention of following his advice. Only let it be done and I do not doubt that confidence in Brazil would at once revive; the present threatening clouds would dissipate; and should we exchange returning to old rates, and prosperity once more smiling on the land.

In this case, then, I believe a remedy may be found for present evils. Through the medium of your paper I humbly submit the suggestion to the judgment of the Brazilian public. The position is critical; the times are dangerous; at such times patriotism should assert itself, and the voice of reason and of friendship should be heard.

First our rulers may be wise, and that Heaven may bless their honest efforts to save the country, is the earnest hope and prayer of an ENGLISHMAN.

RIO HARBOUR MISSION.

Capital, Dec. 19th, 1891.

To the Editor of THE RIO NEWS:

Dear Sir,—My attention has been drawn by many friends to a leading article in the last issue of your paper relative to sailors ashore in this port, in which you say, "In a harbor like this there surely ought to be some provision for Jack's entertainment and amusement, without exposing him to the excesses and abuses which are sure to cause his ruin." The question has been raised whether or not you are acquainted with the work of the above mission.

Kindly permit me for the benefit of all interested in any that at the above address there is conducted a Sailors' Home and Institute. The religious services are bright, cheerful gatherings, suitable to the class for whom they are more particularly intended. The reading-room is made as attractive as possible with papers, magazines, diaries, chess, writing materials, etc. There is also a library of over 100 good, readable books and plenty of empty shelves. The free and easy concert is the grand night of the week as the crowded "houses" testify. Of course the occasional tea-meetings are well patronized for Jack is easiest "got at" through his stomach.

I would emphasize your remark, "It is a charity as difficult to organize as necessary," but the initiatory difficulty has been overcome, success has attended the effort, therefore all are asked to co-operate in the difficult undertaking.

Truly yours,

EDWARD WESSON.

RIVER PLATE ITEMS.

—Gold was quoted at $10.55 per sovereign, or 388, in Buenos Aires yesterday.

—The Argentine government has voted $100,000 towards the Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893. A commission has been appointed to make arrangements.

—Reports are current in Buenos Aires of a purpose to move the federal capital to La Plata. That is what all these pretensions public edifices in the latter city were built for.

—The provincial government (Buenos Aires) has by virtue of the law of 3rd July 1884, given to Dr. Danilo Rocha, as founder of the city of La Plata, 16,000 square metres of land in the port, fronting the river Santiago, and between the intermediate dock and the entrance canal. This is a big reward for ruining the country, but it is a good deal off his hat to him in the street, and if the amount was only twice enough he might even be sent to England as financial representative of the republic. So wags the world.—Montevideo Times.

—The cashier of a departmental bank of the National Bank is in trouble for a defalcation of some two thousand dollars, and is actually being criminally prosecuted. This is very odd and absurd. If this enterprising gentleman had only passed himself off as a director or an eminent financier, he might have defrauded the bank of several hundred thousand dollars with ease and nothing would have been said to him. On the contrary, he would be treated with great respect, every care would be taken to hush up the matter, the President himself would take off his hat to him in the street, and if the amount was only twice enough he might even be sent to England as financial representative of the republic. So wags the world.—Montevideo Times.

PROVINCIAL NOTES.

—The Paraná junta has dissolved the state legislature.

—The president of S. Paulo has dissolved the tribunal of justice of that state.

—The revolution in S. Paulo being over, Col. Salim will go and concentrate in Minas.

—During the prevalence of small-pox in Araxá, Minas Geraes, there were 77 cases and 120 deaths.

In Pará from Nov. 20th to 28th the price of the best quality of rubber declined from 450 to 350 per kilo.

—"Let's go and have a game of billiards," "No, I'm tired of billiards; let's go and depose a governor."

From Manaus and Para there were shipped last year in foreign countries 19,341,321 kilos of rubber.

The new municipal law of the city of S. Paulo, approved by the new assembly, took possession of the offices on the 17th inst.

The Paulista republicans held a mass meeting in S. Paulo on the 16th to protest against the "secessionist" movement in Rio de Janeiro.

The state legislature of Rio Grande do Norte was dissolved on the 18th. The election of members of the new legislature will be held on Jan. 1st.

Gor. Lema Sodre's physician has advised him to go to Ceara for his health. Why didn't Dr. Paulo Cesar give the same advice to Governor Portella?

It would be a significant commentary on Brazilian republican institutions if all the elected officials should be turned out of office before serving one whole year.

A telegram from Castro, Santa Catharina, on the 20th says that the military force is going through the interior of that state depositing the municipal intendentes. In Desterro there's much excitement.

Gen. Astorgio Pereira da Costa has been appointed to the command of the garrison at Jaguarua, Gen. João da Silva Tavares of Bello and Gen. Fritzsche Amant Martins of S. R. will all go to Rio Grande do Sul.

The provisional junta in Alagoas has been much disturbed over the report that they have increased the expenses of the state. An armistice is there to inquire into the situation for the national government.

Ex-Gov. Portella's ex-legislative is issuing a manifesto every day. In one of the most recent of these documents they promise to sustain the republic. Their ex-reverences are probably unaware that charity begins at home.

Gen. Cadre, alleging illness, has retired from the state government of Bahia, leaving it in the hands of Col. Vireu Lima. Many of the state officials refuse to recognise the new governor, and fifty officers of the garrison have declared against him.

In the 5th regiment of artillery, stationed at Bahia, there is a captain whose name is Raymundo F. Por Dens (Raymundo F. By God). In view of the case with which one can change his name in this country we should think the captain might manage to get rid of so emphatic a cognomen.

Late papers from Amazonas state that Major Manoel Ferreira dos Anjos was arrested in Manaus for a defalcation of 70,000 $ in his accounts as treasurer of the state. When his friends heard of his arrest and imprisonment they at once raised the amount of the default and paid it in, after which the prisoner was liberated.

The agitation in Espírito Santo, which compelled the resignation of the governor, broke out in an open revolt against the vice-governor on the 20th. The "hangers" took possession of the telegraph lines and proclaimed the dissolution of the state legislature. The movement, however, does not appear to be unanimous, although the military is apparently favorable.

It is pleasing to note that at the moment so many states are disregarding their constitutions by turning out their governors by mob violence, the state of Guyar is adopting a constitution and organizing its government. The formal promulgation of the Guyar constitution occurred on the 21st inst., and the first ordinary session of the state legislature took place on the same day.

—Another pacific revolution occurred in Maranhão on the 20th, a provincial junta being organized and the 2nd vice-governor turning over the state government to it. The governor first announced his resignation because he could not count upon the public forces; the 1st vice-governor then declined to accept the office and named the 2nd vice-governor as his successor, but the people kicked the latter out before he could draw his salary.

—The state government of Pernambuco appears to have collapsed on the 18th almost without a sign of resistance. There was a street manifestation and riot, the police force is said to have fired upon the people with fatal results, a provincial junta was proclaimed, and Gen. Onique Jacques was invited to assume the government. This signal early in the officer, who had only just arrived in Pernambuco, promptly accepted the office, and the people then gave themselves up to the pleasant sensations of illicious rejoicings.

RAILROAD NOTES.

—The coffee producers of Taubaté, S. Paulo, are complaining of a lack of transportation to the market.

—The committee appointed to report on the cause of the recent accidents on the Central railway began work on the 15th.

—The directors of the Geral railway have at last been compelled to listen to reason and a general meeting of shareholders is called for the 28th inst.

—The administration of the Central railway suspended the acceptance of merchandise for the interior on the 17th, and this suspension will remain in force until the 29th inst. Think of the principal railway of Brazil closing its doors to merchandise for a period of twelve days!

On a petition of the Companhia Viação Leitura Siqueira asking for the approval of the final surveys on the Sul Paulista railway, the minister of agriculture has decided that the company must prove that the grant of the railway has been transferred to it before the government can recognize its right to an answer to such a petition.

COFFEE NOTES.

A new machine for hulling coffee, invented by Messrs. Thompson, Wilks and Reed, was expatriated in Northern on the 15th. The results of the trial are considered satisfactory.

In these days when 5,000 bushels is a big crop of coffee, and the estates much give as much as 5,000 bushels might almost be counted on the fingers of one's hands, it is refreshing to hear of a large estate in a crop not measured by hundreds of bushels but by thousands. We hear that the total crop of Spring Valley estate, Brazil, amounts this year to 17,000 bushels of parchment, equal to about 1½ cent. an acre all round. Considering that this crop has been picked off such an area of 500 acres, it must be considered a really very fine crop, not only relative to others but to itself. No other estate in Ceylon has given this year so large a crop, and the shareholders of the Spring Valley Company, no less than the credit, labor and energetic manager, Mr. A. T. Kotté, are to be congratulated upon this magnificent result of the year's work. When coffee can yield such splendid returns who shall say that it is dead! We are told that, notwithstanding this fine crop, the trees are generally in good condition, and that a very fine blossom has again set on them. With this valuable extent of fine vigorous coffee and a large average (617 acres) at a very fair tea, prospects before the company are certainly very satisfactory.—Ceylon Observer, Oct. 21st.

LOCAL NOTES.

Congress was opened on the 18th. —The decree annulling that of Oct. 20, relating to joint-stock companies, will be signed today. —The sessions of Congress are again suffering from their old complaint—lack of quorum. —The new electoral law was voted in 2nd reading in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

On the 15th only 135 horses were killed at the abattoir for supplying this city, which requires an average of 300 horses a day.

The inspector general of lands and colonization has been suspended from his office, pending an examination of his official conduct.

The director-general of the postoffice and his chiefs of section indignantly deny that letters were opened in the Rio postoffice during the dictatorship.

The chief of police has published a notice prohibiting unlawful assemblages in the streets, and warning law-abiding citizens to keep away from them.

The authorities are sending 1,080 immigrants from Ilha das Flores to Santos to-day. Is it not a strange oversight to send these poor people to a place like Santos?

The department of justice has been united to that of the interior, and the offices have been moved to the building occupied by the minister of interior on the Largo do Rocin.

On the 17th a band of so-called republicans made an attack on the embaixada, where on the day before there had been some monarchist demonstrations. A police force was afterwards sent there for the purpose of keeping order.

STACY—FORD.—On the 16th inst., at Church, Rio de Janeiro, by the Rev. H. Mos M.A., HAROLD WILLIAM, eldest son of RO Stacey, Esq., of Dulwich, England, to JE MARGARET, youngest daughter of the WILLIAM Ford, of Rio de Janeiro. No cards.

London, Dec. 16th, 9.30 p.m.—Many persons in this city, Paris and Lisbon complain that the correspondence was opened in the Rio post office during the dictatorship, and that money and important documents were abstracted therefrom, inflicting heavy losses to the interested parties. They ask for a careful investigation of the matter and the punishment of the culprits.

December 15.—The Brasilische Bank opened at 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> million, but withdrew about 11 o'clock, and afterwards posted 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>. The market is disturbed by apprehension that the banks may refuse to float steamers up to the end of the month, and that if business will have to be done at very low rates. Business done during the day was in bank sterling at 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>, with commercial quoted at the extremes of 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>. Official rates were 11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>—11<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> on London, 81/2—82/2 on Hamburg, and 18000—18000 on Hamburg at 60 days; 18000 on New York at sight. Sovereigns closed buyers at 21800, sellers at 22000.

IMPORTS.

A fair amount of business is again reported for the past week, and prices show only slight changes. Receipts of flour are moderate, and one cargo of American arrived during the week, it is feared will prove unfit for consumption. Dealers are still rather anxious to sell, and prices are easier, with the market quiet. We have received a large cargo of Pich pine, a fair lot of White, two cargoes of Swedish and a cargo of Spanish pine; all of which has gone into dealers' hands and the markets continue firm. Kerosene and Lard are about unchanged and firm. A cargo of Rice from Rangoon has arrived, but quotations remain as at date of our last report. Codfish is rather lower, but the demand is fair; our other cargo of Canadian fish has arrived and also a fair quantity of Norwegian. The other articles are quite close with no changes of note. Exchange has been fairly steady, and closed with rates as upward tendency.

Flour.—Receipts since our last report have been:

John D. Gordon, from New York 5,000 bbls.
Tulla Rollins, from Baltimore 5,000 do.
Mathewson, from Trieste 10,000 do.
Isipane, from the River Plate, 111 bags 50 do.

10,621 bbls.

The cargo per Y. H. Crandon is badly damaged, and has been declared unfit for consumption, and stocks in first hands are still about 900 bbls.

Bakers report the market quiet, with dealers anxious to sell, and quote as follows, per 100 lbs.

SANTOS.

From Messrs. John Bradshaw & Co's Market Report, dated December 1st:

Coffee.—Currency prices were very irregular during the past month, frequently varying 30¢-40¢ a day, in sympathy with the oscillations in the rate of exchange, which has further declined about 6 per cent. Enquiry continued to be chiefly for the better and higher grades, which are gradually becoming scarce, while the preparation of low and hard styled qualities is increasing. Stealing cost, as per our quotations, shows an advance of 2¢-12¢ per cent for the month.

Receipts averaged 12,118 bags, per cent for last month, against 11,955 bags in November, 1890, and 12,400 in 1889. From July 1st to date they reach 1,235,000 bags, against 1,613,700 bags in 1890 and 1,617,133 bags in 1889.

Stocks in all hands are estimated to be 3,779 bags, bags of which 1,143,000 bags are engaged for shipment.

We quote, f.o.b., with freight and commission, by steamer to London and New York, exchange 12½¢: Good Average 65¢-14½¢.

A brain food. It increases the capacity for mental labor and acts as a general tonic. It rests the tired brain and imparts thereto new life and vigor.
